Dear Sir William,

I think you have misinterpreted the situation as far as Miss Campbell is concerned. She has not been asked to resign. The whole affair is very regrettable and whilst there is no reflection upon Miss Campbell in this connection it is considered advisable to have a change of staff.

I am extremely sorry for her and quite realize how distressing the circumstances are but she must not take it too much to heart. In the ordinary course of events she would have been sooner or later transferred to another unit. In the Army nothing is permanent but change! With warm regards to Lady Osler and yourself.

I am, very faithfully yours,

Margaret Macdonald.
